PLOT AGAINST THE CZAR

Uniform of the Cossack Escort Purchased by Unknown Person.

St. Petersburg, Feb. 4.—A plot evidently directed against the emperor came to light Saturday at St. Petersburg through an order issued to the secret police to use every effort to identify the purchaser of a uniform of his majesty's own Cossack escort, which was captured during a recent raid. Detectives have been directed to visit every tailor in St. Petersburg and the searches can be extended to the provinces. The use of regulation uniforms is a favorite device of the terrorists. It was employed in the attempt against the life of Premier Stolypin and in the assassination of Military Procurator Pavlov. The Cossack garb is an open sesame to the precincts of the palace at Tsarko-Selo and Peterhof.

COLORADO RIVER IN CONTROL

Danger Over and Final Touches to Be Given This Week.

Imperial, Cal., Feb. 4.—While the country is talking of the possibility of controlling the Colorado river, the affair is considered closed by the people most affected. The former break in the bank was closed on November 6, and the present break occurred on December 6. More than half the river's flow is now turned and the critical period has passed. By Wednesday the remainder of the current will be flowing down the old channel, it now being but a matter of dumping sufficient rock to make complete the closure of the break.

THE DEATH OF BISHOP STANG

He Fails to Recover After Operation in Rochester, Minn., Hospital—First Bishop of the Diocese of Fall River, Mass.

Rochester, Minn., Feb. 4.—A despatch from Rochester, Minn., conveys the information that Bishop Stang of Fall River, who lately underwent an operation at Mary's hospital there, died on Saturday morning. Bishop Stang went to Rochester January 20 to have a tumor removed by Dr. William Mayo. The bishop was accompanied to Rochester by several Roman Catholic church dignitaries. The operation was a delicate one and little hope was held out to the bishop for his recovery. He decided, nevertheless, to have the operation performed, and it was done January 21. The body was taken to Fall River, Mass., Saturday night.

Rev. William Stang, first bishop of the diocese of Fall River, was born in the German province of Baden-Baden in 1854, and received his early education in the German gymnasium. His course in theology, philosophy, and letters was completed at the Catholic seminary in Louvain, near Brussels in Belgium. There he was ordained as a missionary priest in 1878, and served as a teacher in the university of Louvain for a while. In 1879 he affiliated himself with the Province of St. Louis under the late Bishop Hendricks, his first work being at St. Peter and Paul cathedral, where he remained until 1884, when he was appointed pastor of St. Anne's church, at Cranston, R. I. He returned to Providence in 1898, and was again stationed at St. Peter and Paul cathedral, this time as the chancellor to Bishop Harkins, which office he held up to the time of his consecration as bishop of the diocese of Fall River in 1904. Dr. Stang founded the missionary board of clergymen known as the Providence apostolate, and he was chosen the superior of the order. The apostolate was started for the purpose of conducting the missions and doing mission work among the Catholics and non-Catholics of the diocese.

In addition to being a preacher of strong argumentative ability, Bishop Stang was also a logical and careful writer. Among his published works was one on papistic theology, a study in which he excelled while in college, and he was equally well versed in the rules and procedure of the church. In speaking, his enunciation was perfect, his choice of language so admirable that no one could fail to fully comprehend his slightest shade of meaning. He was for years actively identified with St. Joseph's hospital in Providence, to the labor of upbuilding which was due his breakdown in health, that caused him to go abroad and take a partial rest at the Louvain university.

In January, 1906, Bishop Stang started the whole diocese, and to some extent the whole country, by a diocesan letter on the subject of dancing, read in all the churches of his jurisdiction. In March, 1906, he issued a letter to his diocese on the subject of "Christian marriages," declaring that the state had usurped the authority of the state; that civil marriage was contrary to religion; that the church was the only power that could solemnize weddings, and that it only could grant separations—not divorce—of husband and wife. He also said that any man or woman who should remarry should be ostracized by the church.

REPUBLICANS SIGN REVISION PETITION.

Gov. Guild's Tariff Campaign Liberally Supported in Massachusetts.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 4.—Despite the opposition of Col. Albert Clarke, secretary of the Home Market club, the action of Governor Curtis Guild is circulating a tariff revision petition to be presented to President Roosevelt, is receiving much commendation among Massachusetts Republicans and the petition is being generally signed by Republican and Democratic members of the legislature. The petition asks the president to call an extra session of Congress to consider whether certain tariff schedules cannot be changed with advantage to the business interests. It asks that the subject of maximum and minimum tariff be considered as a basis for reciprocity, and it asks for a permanent tariff commission.

Col. Clark issued a statement in which he ridiculed the petition and sarcastically suggested that the Republican governor of the Massachusetts state of Massachusetts might find enough to occupy him in his official duties without offering tariff suggestions to the president and Congress. He also stated his belief that few if any Republican members of the legislature would be bold enough to sign the petition.

The first name appended under the governor's was that of President Chapin of the Senate, a staunch Republican, and up to Saturday night nearly two-thirds of the Republican members had signed the petition. It is stated that a good share of the rest will sign this week, although a few extreme high-tariff men will not sign.

AFTER EIGHT TRIALS SAYS MARRIAGE IS A FAILURE.

Woman of Many Names Asserts That Men Collectively Are After Money Only.

Boonville, Ind., Feb. 4.—Sixty-five years old, and having had eight husbands within that time, Mrs. Polly Wood Baker declares that marriage is a failure and that men are after money only. She is winding up the affairs of her last venture by filing divorce proceedings against William Baker, as she did against six other husbands. The extra one drowned himself.

Time was when Mrs. Baker told her father, when he objected to one of her suitors, that she knew of nothing she liked better than being led to the altar by some noble-looking man. She could talk to her father as an equal, at least. He had been married three times.

Made up in the style usually used for Mrs. Coffin-Walker-Coffin-etc. Mrs. Baker's name must be written "Mrs. Polly Castle Fugate Fugate Robinson Boyden-Wood-Boydell-Edwards-Baker."

The two Fugates were cousins. She remarried Boyden. Cruelty and desertion have been the allegations in all of the divorce actions.

Mrs. Baker owns property worth about $25,000.

DESERTED WIFE BECAUSE FIRST BORN WAS A GIRL.

Walton Always Wanted a Boy and Would Not Consider Any Other Possibility.

San Antonio, Tex., Feb. 4.—Deserted the day after her first child was born because the child was not a boy is the allegation made by Wilhelmina Walton, who is suing her husband, J. D. Walton, for a divorce. They were wedded two years ago.

All was happiness until their child was born. It was a girl. When the nurse so informed the father he put on his hat, left the house, and his wife has not seen him since. She is working in a laundry to support the little girl who was so unwelcome to her father as to cause the desertion of her mother.

Mrs. Walton says her husband always wished the child to be a boy, and never allowed any thought that it could be otherwise to enter his mind.

FOREST SEEDLING NURSERY.

Plot at Experiment Station to Be Devoted to Such Project.

Burlington, Feb. 4.—The board of control of the Vermont experiment station have voted to accept the proposition outlined in a bill passed by the recent legislature for the establishment and maintenance of a nursery for the propagation of forest seedlings of useful variety, to be supplied to residents and land owners of Vermont for forest planting.

The sum of $500 per year for a period of five years, payable in semi-annual installments on the first of April and October of each year, was appropriated by the legislature for this purpose. The bill provides that the experiment station shall furnish the necessary land for the proposed nursery and also furnish the necessary expert supervision in conducting the work.

A plot of land on the Ainsworth farm, purchased by the trustees of the experiment station two years ago will be utilized for the development of the nursery and the nursery will be started in the spring.

SEN. GALLINGER'S WIFE

DIES IN A THEATRE.

Taken Suddenly Ill While Attending Performance in Washington.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Mrs. Jacob H. Gallinger, wife of Senator Gallinger of New Hampshire, was taken ill in the Belasco theatre Saturday night and died shortly afterward.

Senator Gallinger, his wife and four friends went to the theatre Saturday night as the friends of David Belasco. The party had just entered the building when Mrs. Gallinger swooned and it at once became evident that she was very ill. Dr. A. S. Rowan of Baltimore, who happened to be near, attended her.

While waiting for the ambulance of the emergency hospital, where Dr. Rowan advised that she be taken, Mrs. Gallinger expired. Death was due to angina pectoris. The body will be taken to her late home in New Hampshire tomorrow afternoon.

As the stricken woman was being removed to the lobby of the theatre, Mrs. Gallinger, Associate Justice Moods and others forming a box party came through the private entrance. It was not until some time afterward that Mrs. Gallinger was advised of Mrs. Gallinger's demise, and she was greatly shocked.

Mrs. Gallinger of Prominent Family. Concord, N. H., Feb. 4.—Mrs. Gallinger, wife of Senator Jacob H. Gallinger, was formerly Miss Mary Anna Bailey of Salisbury, N. H., and was married to Dr. Gallinger soon after the latter began the practice of medicine.

Her family was one of the most prominent in the town of Salisbury. In recent years Senator and Mrs. Gallinger have resided in Concord in the intervals of congressional sessions, spending part of each summer also at the old homestead in Salisbury.

She was active in church work, but her interests otherwise were centered mainly in her home duties, and she went little into local society. Two sons Dr. Ralph Gallinger of this city and William Henry Gallinger of New York, and a daughter, Mrs. Harold Norton of Cambridge, Mass., survive her.

BACKACHE AND DESPONDENCY

Are both symptoms of organic derangement, and nature's warning to women of a trouble which will sooner or later declare itself.

How often do we hear women say, "It seems as though my back would break." Yet they continue to drag along and suffer with aches in the small of the back, pain low down in the side, dragging sensations, nervousness and no ambition.

They do not realize that the back is the main-spring of woman's organism, and quickly indicates by aching a diseased condition of the femoral organs or kidneys, and that aches and pains will continue until the cause is removed.

made from native roots and herbs has been for many years the most successful remedy in such cases. No other medicine has such a record of cures of feminine ills.

Miss Lena Nagel, of 117 Morgan St., Buffalo, N. Y., writes:—"I was completely worn out and on the verge of nervous prostration. My back ached all the time. I had dreadful periods of pain, was subject to fits of crying and extreme nervousness, and was always weak and tired. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cures Female Complaints, such as Backache, Falling and Displacements, and all Organic Diseases. Dissolves and expels Tumors at an early stage. It strengthens and tones the Stomach, Cures Headache and Indigestion and invigorates the whole feminine system.

LIBERAL CHURCH POLICY.

Seems to Have Prevailed Over the Striking Factory Workmen in Lodz Suffering from Cold.

Paris, Feb. 4.—The view of Minister of Education continue along liberal lines in the execution of the separation laws, seems to have prevailed over the stiff-necked view held by Premier Clemenceau, and it has been practically decided to instruct the prefects that the contracts for the leasing of churches offered by the parish priests are acceptable, with modifications, provided they not vitiate the rights of the state which existed under the concordat, and which exist under the present laws, to "disaffect" the churches. In other words, the government wants to test the sincerity of the desire expressed by Rome to find a basis of settlement. Certainly a vast majority of the French clergy, together with an overwhelming majority of the French people, wish for a peaceful adjustment of the present conflict, but when the bishops, acting under the instructions of the Vatican, will recede from their position of "all or nothing" remains a question.

BURIED MILLIONS FOUND.

Mexican Shepherd Comes Upon a Supposed Bandits' Storehouse.

Durango, Mexico, Feb. 4.—There is much excitement here over the discovery of hidden treasure to the amount of more than $4,000,000 near the coral de Majomo, on the Hacienda El Oro, in the Sonora des Dios district of the State. The hacienda is owned by Julio Curbelo. The Government has sent fifty soldiers to the place to preserve order.

The treasure consists of golden images and idols and a large crucifix of gold, with a vast number of silver bars. It is said to have been hidden at Coral de Majomo by bandits many years ago. At one time bandits were very thick and audacious throughout that district.

A shepherd is said to have discovered the treasure and to have told of his find to the Alcaide, who immediately took steps to recover it.

USING FENCES FOR FUEL.

Striking Factory Workmen in Lodz Suffering from Cold.

Lodz, Feb. 4.—The fifth week of the strike of factory workmen at Lodz, Russian Poland, finds the situation unchanged. The intense cold of the past fortnight has forced the strikers to tear down the fences around their homes, and in some cases even to unroof their houses, in order to get fuel for heating purposes. Lodz has seen on an average of 30 robberies a day for a month or more. The governor has withdrawn the troops from those sections of the city where the laboring men live, and the desperate labor feuds have resulted in several murders. As soldiers have been several times attacked while moving the wounded men to hospitals, the surgeons have refused the services of ambulances.

ARRESTS IN TOWNSEND CASE.

Two Suspicious Pistols at Home of One of the Prisoners in Brooklyn.

New York, Feb. 4.—Samuel Bell and George Flood were arrested Saturday and held by Coroner Cahill in $1,000 bail as witnesses in connection with the murder of Dr. Charles W. Townsend, who was shot and mortally wounded at his home in New Brighton, S. I. a week ago. Bell is a stepbrother of John Bell, the street car conductor, who is held without bail as a suspect in the case, and Flood is a friend of Samuel Bell. The arrests Saturday were due, the police say, to their having found two revolvers at the Bell home in Brooklyn. On their first visit, they say, the pistols were not discovered, but on a second search they found them concealed in a closet. Coroner Cahill said Saturday that Samuel Bell admitted that he had removed the revolvers from a bureau drawer on the day Dr. Townsend was murdered and took them to Flood's house and later carried them back to his own home. Both men, the coroner said, denied having cleaned or put fresh cartridges in the revolvers, which the police declare were fully loaded, and bore evidence of a recent cleaning when they found them.
